

Intermed. DiffEQ, Nonlinear Dynamics

Physics 413, Math 404 at University of Michigan

EVAN CARPENTER

Winter Semester 2022

Fixed points can change, called bifurcation. Normal form of “Saddle Node” bifurcations is $$\dot{x} = r + x^2$$

r is parameter, fixed points depend on r .

Transcritical bifurcations are when there must be a critical point, but the stability of that point can change.

Normal form of transcritical bifurcations is $$\dot{x} = rx - x^2$$